

MLK50: Awareness, Advocacy, and Activism

Date: Thursday, April 26, 2018

Time: 5:30pm-8:30pm

Location: Bristol Community College, 800 Purchase St., New Bedford

Free and Open to the Community

Activities Include:

Fair Housing Workshop by SouthCoast Fair Housing

Racial Justice Workshop and Youth Activities by YWCA Southeastern MA

Suffrage Play by Our Sisters' School

Worker Rights and Activism workshop by UMass Labor Education Center

Open Mic and Spoken Word

Resource Tables and Refreshments

Space is limited. Please RSVP and view additional details by visiting southcoastfairhousing.org/MLK50NB.

Co-Sponsored By:

Coalition for Social Justice

Community Economic Development Center

Immigrants' Assistance Center

Martha Briggs Educational
Club

New Bedford Historical Society

New Bedford Human Relations
Commission

New Bedford NAACP

NorthStar Learning Center

Our Sisters' School

South Coastal Counties Legal

Services

SouthCoast Fair Housing

South Coast LGBTQ Network

The Women's Center

UMass Labor Education Center

Women's Fund of Southeastern MA

YWCA Southeastern MA

To request an accommodation or language interpretation, contact SouthCoast Fair Housing at 774-473-8333 or Miguel@southcoastfairhousing.org

Supported by U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development